May 31st - June 7th, 2010

Join Monsignor Jeremy Rigden on a pilgrimage-holiday to Valladolid in Central Spain.

Stay at the Royal College of St. Alban (the English College), founded in 1589 and for over four centuries, preparing young men for the priesthood in England and Wales; a College with a wonderful history including twenty-seven martyrs, six of them canonized saints. (All rooms ensuite; lifts available).

Explore the City of Valladolid, its streets, its churches, its parks and museums.

Visit the mediaeval walled city of Avila, birth-place of St. Teresa, great mystic and founder of Discalced Carmelite Sisters.

Visit Segovia, with its Aqueduct, Fortress Palace and shrine of St. John of the Cross, poet, mystic and founder of the Discalced Carmelite Friars.

We also hope to visit Salamanca, one of the oldest and most beautiful University cities of Europe.

Enjoy the hospitality, food and drink, unusual countryside and unique atmosphere of the "real" Spain.
